With Much of The World in Turmoil, Minno is Encouraging Families to Spend Father's Day Focusing on Faith and Family Time Spent Together

(Nashville, TN—June 16, 2020) Minno—a new, Nashville-based children's digital media company known for its free "Church at Home" program, has launched a Father's Day contest and will feature videos of kids wishing their dad a happy Father's Day and sharing why they love their dad on Church at Home on June 21. The grand prize for the Father's Day Giveaway will include a $200 gift certificate to Omaha Steaks and a 1 year, free subscription to Minno's streaming service, featuring one of the world's largest collections of Classic VeggieTales and an expertly-curated collection of media choices for Christian families.

"With screens everywhere and the 24 hour news cycle bombarding parents and kids at every turn, Minno creates an opportunity for Christian families to come together, enjoy uplifting entertainment that reflects their faith and values, and facilitate healthy conversations around the dinner table. The real prize here is to foster these great conversations that come with faith-filled television, and also reflecting on how great our dads are, but we're also thrilled to throw in a fun prize, too!" ,” said Erick Goss, CEO and Co-founder of Minno and former senior manager at Amazon. “Our goal at Minno is to help Christian parents raise the next generation of faithful and kind believers, so even beyond the grand prize, we hope the contest encourages the opportunity for every family to share their love for each other, learn about God through stories, and come together around a meal to celebrate God's goodness as well as to celebrate and affirm their dads through Church at Home user-generated content.”
