Minno Hosts VeggieTales® Live Facebook Karaoke Party to Celebrate New Episodes

As Faith-Based Kids Streaming Platform Vigorously Grows its Content Library to Serve Parents and Families in Challenging Times, Minno Adds More VeggieTales® Episodes—Join Live Event This Thursday, August 6th @ 7:00 PM ET

(Nashville, TN—August 5, 2020) Minno—a new, Nashville-based children’s digital media company featuring one of the world’s largest collections of Classic VeggieTales® and an expertly-curated collection of media choices for Christian families, including its free “Church at Home” program and award-winning Laugh and Grow Bible, has added more all-time favorite VeggieTales® episodes. The additional episodes available this summer include twelve VeggieTales® episodes, two sing-alongs, and four LarryBoy classics. In addition to more classic episodes, Minno is also offering activities to spark conversations that matter, including coloring pages, activity sheets, and family discussion guides for the VeggieTales® Bible stories available on Minno.

“Every family’s day-to-day is different, on hold, or disrupted right now, so we wanted to offer a fun, faith-filled night as well as more content that families know and love. It’s hard to find familiarity as summer camps are canceled and school expectations are ever-changing, so we hope that the beloved VeggieTales show bring some more light and love to homes around the world as families work hard to find their new normal,” said Erick Goss, CEO and Co-founder of Minno and former senior manager at Amazon. “VeggieTales® is a hallmark of Minno’s Christian content that helps provide faith and moral grounding for families in a fun, informative way. We at Minno hope families everywhere enjoy these additional classic episodes as well as our new VeggieTales® activities and encourage everyone to join us for our Facebook karaoke night to celebrate learning about God.”
